

Frog Mask

This template is best printed on card stock.

Bend the paper slightly and cut the dotted lines on the frog's mouth.

Push the plastic end of a party blower all the way through the opening!

Making eye holes is optional, but coloring is a must!

TERRIFIC TONGUES!

A STEM picture book by Maria Gianferrari and illustrated by Jia Liu (Boyd's Mill Press)

"The North America bullfrog's tongue unrolls like a party blower. It's sticky for catching insects, crayfish, snakes, turtles, frogs, and even ducklings." —TERRIFIC TONGUES
